

The Wake Forest Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Virtual Commemoration

Annual community commemoration recognizing students in the Wake Forest/Rolesville Schools

October 20, 2022

The 28th Annual Wake Forest Martin Luther King, Jr (MLK) Holiday Commemoration will be held on Thursday, January 19, 2023 at Friendship Chapel Baptist Church. The MLK Committee is again offering a slate of contests for students in the Wake Forest/Rolesville area Schools. This is an opportunity for our communities to come together and recognize the talents of students in our schools. The contest consists of Performances (dancing, singing or speaking), Writing (essays and poetry) and Art (drawing and painting). The contests are based on this year's theme.

Theme: "True peace is not merely the absence of tension; it is the presence of justice." -- Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
Thanks in advance for your participation!

This year, a minimum of three $1,000.00 scholarships will be offered to graduating high school seniors toward post secondary education.

Areas of performance are listed below.

Students will have an opportunity to demonstrate their talents by:

Performing:

- Dancing to songs where the lyrics and choreography embody the life and legacy of Dr. King.
- Singing songs that express the ideas and life of Dr. King.
- Reciting one of Dr. King's speeches; or reciting original poetry or a short story written by the student about the life and legacy of Dr. King. (The author may have another student recite their poetry during judging).

Writing:

The student's writing should be in support of one of the following prompts centered around this year's theme.

- Racial Equality
- Social Awareness
- Education

Creative Art:

Artwork should illustrate the life and legacy of Dr. King or relate to the Program's theme.

The Contest details and a registration form are on the next page.

Important Dates:

- Student's work and registration form must be uploaded by Friday, January 6, 2023.
- Contest winners will be notified by Saturday, January 14, 2023
- Contest winners will be recognized on Thursday, January 19, 2023 @ Friendship Chapel Baptist Church, 237 Friendship Chapel Rd., Wake Forest, NC.

We are looking forward to receiving lots of entries and enjoying the talents of our students!
